We, at AIM-VA, wish you all a wonderful summer vacation. Take the time to relax and share with family and friends; summer moves all too quickly! We will be here getting everything ready for the 2019-2020 school year. Until then...

Be safe and enjoy!

News You Can Use

Activities to Encourage Summer Reading for Your Students

Did you know that whether or not a child reads during the summer is a predictor of summer learning loss or summer gain? Summer reading is important, but not always fun, for a child who struggles with reading. Summer loss can equal about a month of academic learning. As a teacher, you want your students to practice their skills over the summer and learn about new topics. It's important to make summer reading entertaining so that they did you know?

you can box up all the books you will need for fall and they will be ready for you when you get back!

make sure your reading and textbooks are ready-to-go before your students need them. the ready-to-go book collection initiative enables any aim-va drm to have student books pre-converted and added to the aim-va library so accessible versions are ready when needing to order them for students.

[button] click here to learn more

spotlight

meet julie hubbard as she talks about a unique partnership between newington forest elementary school and aim-va

[profile]

aim va help desk

george mason university 4400 university drive, ms 1f2
fairfax, va 22030

phone: 888-496-0252
fax: 703-993-5149
email: aimva@gmu.edu
Sponsors:

Visit our sister sites:

AIM-VA is a service of the Virginia Department of Education (VDOE) through a grant to The Kellar Institute for Human disAbilities at George Mason University.